

NOTICE OR COMMUNICATION

Banco Crédito Andorrà (Panama), S.A. (hereinafter "THE BANK"), an entity that holds an International Bank License issued by the Superintendency of Banks, through Resolution No. SBP 207-2008 of August 28, and a Broker-Dealer License issued by the Superintendency of the Securities Market, through CNV Resolution No. 236-09 of July 22, 2009, hereby notifies the following:

On February 7, 2023, in accordance with the provisions of the Banking Law, Chapter XIV, article 117, THE BANK made public knowledge to its clients, intermediaries, creditors and other interested persons that the Superintendency of Banks of Panama approved the Voluntary Liquidation of its banking operations, as recorded by Resolution No. SBP-2023-000435 of January 13, 2023, notified by THE BANK on January 30, 2023, for which reason it would cease to carry out activities typical of an entity with an International Banking License.

In order to optimize our services and focus our resources exclusively on asset management and securities-related products, protected by our Securities Brokerage License, THE BANK will proceed as follows:

1. Unless otherwise instructed by you before December 31, 2024, funds held in your current accounts will automatically be recorded as cash in your investment account.
2. This change will allow us to continue providing customized financial solutions through the products and services authorized under our Broker-Dealer License.

If you wish to take any specific action on your accounts, such as cancelling or transferring funds to another entity, we ask that you communicate this through your business manager or through our electronic platform before December 31, 2024.

Your account statements will be available as usual through our usual channels. Our team is committed to supporting you during this transition and resolving any queries or concerns that may arise.

We deeply appreciate the trust placed in us and reiterate our commitment to continue offering high-quality financial services, tailored to your financial and investment needs.

Regards,

Pedro Cornella Castel and Itzel Solís Medina
